COUSIN PUSS DISAPPOINTS

TOP WEIGHT AND FAVORITE RUNS UNPLACED IN JUAREZ FEATURE RACE.

J. W. Fuller Wins Handicap with Black-Eyed Susan and Also Takes Juvenile Purse with Tokay-Captain Burns a Victor.

El Paso, Tex., March 18.—Two handicaps and an allowance race for two-year-olds imparted an attractiveness to the Juarez card this afternoon that was responsible for a greatly increased attendance. The sport was in keeping with the promise of the program. The race in which the greatest interest cenered was the Santa Carlos Handicap, for three-year-olds and over, one nile and an eighth, for which Cousin Puss, carrying the top weight of 115 pounds, went to the post an even-money favorite. She raced disappointingly and finished unplaced after having run in close attendance upon the pacemakers in the early stages of the racing. The winner numed up in J. W. Fuller's filly, Black-Eyed Susan, skilfully ridden by jockey Taplin. After having been reserved in the early part of the race, she assumed the lead in the stretch and won with ease from Bert Getty and Orlin Kripp. It was the second purse of the day for Mr. Fuller, whose Tokay had won the opening race.

A race that possessed scarcely less interest was the three-quinters of a mile handicap for three-year-olds that was carded third on the program. It was contested by a field of seven, with Captain Burns filling the duel roic of top weight and two-ite. He made good in a driving finish with Osaple and Bing. Captain Burns is well engaged in the east and bids tair to be a useful racing tool.

The half mile dash for two-year-olds with which the afternoon's proceedings began, resulted in the defeat of James Butler's Supremacy, the odds-on choice, by Tokay, one of the outsiders. Tokay won off by himself and the Butler filly led Marie O Brien from the Livingston stable, for second money by a narrow margin. W. S. Trevey, who achieved fame by the development of Hawthorn, won the second race with Winifred D.

Inlan ruled favorite and scored in the fifth race.
Because of his well known propensity for bleeding in his races, the layers took liberties with him in quoting place and show odds. He led all the way, the stead and Cantem fought it out in the closing dash from start to finish and the former forged anearight at the end. The favorite, Anna Reed, was at no time a dangerous factor in the decision of the race.

Manganese was purchased from S. Ambrose by O. Romigh this morning.

SOME GOSSIP ABOUT ROCK SAND.

Also in France there is Rock Sand at the Bel Elast Stud, near Paris. A few nominations to him can be secured at 500 guineas, and large though this fee seems to be, it is not out of proportion to the value of his son, Tracery, for which an offer of 40,000 guineas was refused. Rock Sand possesses the very great credential that, good horse as he himself was on the turf, he has sired a better than himself—for I think no one will deny that Tracery is better than his sire. There are many other good Rock Sands, however, besides Tracery, and I know that Wr. Belmont thinks the unfortunate colt out of Black Poplar, which smashed a fetfock joint at Goodwood and had to be destroyed, was the best he ever bred. We have recently been treated to much discussion about commissions in bloodstock business, and how they are paid, and it may be joint at Goodwood and had to be destroyed, was the best he ever brad. We have recently been treated to much discussion about commissions in bloodstock business, and how they are paid, and it may be well to note that the sale of Rock Sand to Mr. Belmont was an exception to the general rule, insument as the price was not made in guineas, but in pounds, viz., 25,000 pounds. Mr. Belmont paid, separately, an agreed amount for commission. This is the only transaction in my somewhat extensive experience which was carried out in pounds and not in guineas. For what sum Mr. Belmont sold Rock Sand to M. Halbronn's syndicate I do not exactly know, but it is safe to say that it was for a larger amount than he had given for the son of Sainfoin. Some day we shall see Rock Sand's old stable companion and rival, Flotsam, ranking equally high as a stallion. Each horse was handicapped by being ent abroad, but Rock Sand got his chance by having his stock sent to England and France to run, this year we shall have flotsam two-year-olds running, and then there will be developments. It must have been a trying time for George Blackwell when he had Rock Sand and Flotsam in his stable and each owner believed his own colt the better. Flotsam did, in fact, beat Rock Sand for the Middle Park Plate, but after the Two Thousand Guineas prudence might have suggested running him for the Grand Prix instead of for the Derby. There is a good Rock Sand horse standing at the Manderston Stud. Newmarket. This is Rock Flint, which on his best form had clear pretentions to be ranked as the best of his year. He is out of a Meddler mare, and is inbred to that great horse Springfield. At a fee of 35 guineas he is very well worth using. By the way, M. Halbronn came very near to being the first purchaser of Rock Sand, for he did, in fact, offer 20,000 guineas. In the midst of the argument came hesitation, they accepted. The value of blood-arguing with one of Sir James Miller's executors that it was a good price and they ought to take it. They, however, claime

FROM ECLIPSE STAKES TO MILK WAGON.

From winning the Eclipse Stakes of $10,000 at Morris Park to drawing a milk wagon in the streets of Belleville, Ont., covers the viccissitudes of fortune in the case of the thoroughbred horse, Irritable. Charles Wilmot, of Port Hope, has one of Irritable's progeny that he declares to be one of the best show animals he has ever seen. Irritable is now in his sixteenth year, and in 1900 he won the Eclipse from a field that included All Green. Handwork, Prince Charles and Bedeck, all useful enough horses, though none of them is remembered today. Irritable did not run as a three-year-old, but won three short races at four years. He is an entire son of Iroquois, the only American horse to win the Derby, and the Great Tom mare, Toribera.—Francis Nelson in Toronto Globe.

TWO PURSES FOR F. J. PONS.

Grazelle and Armor, Horses That Score for Florida Turfman at Palmetto Park,

Charleston, S. C., March 18.—Small fields of evenly classed horses made up today's racing card at Palmetto Park. Another large attendance witnessed some excellent racing. Governor Cole L. Blease was again among the visitors. There were no outstanding features, all the races being under selling conditions. The closing dash was probably best from a racing standpoint, it being the only one at more than a mile and having among its starters some fair platers. It resulted in a thrilling finish between Kimundy, Gerrard and Spell-bound. The last-named was best, but suffered much from interference on the turns during the earlier siages and again when he was forced to lose much ground by going wide in entering the stretch.

The opening dash brought with it a bad spill, that momentarily threatened to result seriously for jockey Nathan, who went down with Free Trade was well up at this point and showing rankness. Nathan attempted to go through along the inner rail, but one of the starters bore over, tripping him and causing his mount to take a somersault. The boy was lucky to escape with nothing more serious than an injury to his leg. Free Trade was an intended "good thing" and seemingly would have won but for falling.

Francis J. Fons scored a double during the after-thing and seemingly would have won but for falling.

Francis J. Pons scored a double during the afternoon. Grazelle carried his colors to victory in the opener and the change in riders from Randolph to Obert aided Armor to win the fifth.

The juvenile race at a half mile went to Gertischna after a stretch drive with Finalee. Booth spreadcagled his opposition in the third race and Stellata proved best in the fourth.

Jockey F. Murphy, who is fast developing into a capable rider, came into the limelight by piloting the first three winners. A. G. Blakeley will nake his riding engagements and after the close of this meeting will take him to Havre de Grace. Considerable rough riding developed today, for which jockeys Knight, Wolfe and Waldron were responsible. The stewards did not take any action.

A. B. Bavidson today secured at private terms the two-year-old filly May Ipps from W. H. Frey.

R. J. Austin will ship Indolence and Commonada to Norfolk at the close of facing here.

F. Harlan today purchased Sonny Boy from W. O. Joplin.

The Denver Fair and Racing Association will conduct its meetings under the supervision of the Colorado State Racing Commission, recently created by Governor Ammons in compliance with an act of the Colorado Legislature last year. The commission has adopted the weight scale and rules of the Kentucky State Racing Commission almost in their entirety, including the requirement that there must be no betting except by the pari-mutuel system. The act creating the Colorado commission is patterned after that establishing the Kentucky commission except that it provides that meetings under its provisions shall be limited to nineteen days each. The inaugural meeting at Overland Park will embrace the maximum number of days permitted by law and the association plans to conduct a meeting of similar duration next fall.

The plans for the spring meeting contemplate a mixed program during the first seven days. There will be two harness races each day besides four or five running races. The last two weeks of the meeting will be devoted exclusively to the thoroughbreds.

The association already has a large force of men at work renovating the track. The improvements will include the construction of a large number of new stalls to accommodate the four hundred thermal at the stall of the state of the same at the commodation one hundred of the latter in training at Overland Park.

LUTTEUR III. AND COVERTCOAT BEATEN.

At Hurst Park, England, March 6, a steeplechase of important bearing on the Grand National Steeplechase was run, in which at even weights the French candidate Trianon III. somewhat easily disposed of both Lutteur III, and Coverteaat. This was the Champion Steeplechase at three and a half miles, and London Sporting Life of March 7 had this to say of the race:

both Lutteur III, and Coverteoat. This was the Champion Steeplechase at three and a half miles, and London Sporting Life of March 7 had this to say of the race:

"It was agreed on all sides that the winner of yesterday's Champion Steeplechase would go a long way to elucidate the Grand National problem; therefore quite extraordinary interest was taken in yesterday's contest, and the meeting of Coverteoat and Lutteur III. was quite the tiibit of the week's sport. As the wagering suggested, the best judges were unanimous that the race was little more than a match between the prospective 'National' winners. They were meeting at level weights, whereas at Aintree Sir Charles Assheton-Smith's horse has a pound the worst of it, but even so Lutteur III. was the better favorite. However, it was not Mr. Hennessy's gelding which was the means of bringing about the downfall of the English champion, but another French horse in the delightfully-turned gray Trianon III., which was seen out in this country three times last year, viz., once at Manchester and twice over the Liverpool country.

"In the paddock Coverteoat and Lutteur III. were tooked over by a critical crowd, and it was agreed that Coverteoat had never looked brighter in his coat. He was a trifle light in his back ribs, but he has always been that, and certain parts of his frame did not carry the same muscle as when the won at Aintree. Lutteur III. has thickened with age, and if anything looked rounder and more ponyinke than ever. He was well, but can evidently be made filter by the 'National.' The other Frenchman is a different type of horse altogether—more lathy, with greater length and scope, is almost white in color and possesses a very sensible looking head. Wavelet is a fine, upstanding horse, but he is not sought after to the same extent as Coverteoat and the two Frenchmen.

"With a stone less to carry than he will have in the 'National,' Coverteoat was allowed to stride along from the start—not that he set anything like a fast gallop. He just swing along in otherwise his fencing was clean and faulitiess; so mast that of Coverteoat and Triannon III. for that matter.

"Sir C. Assheton-Smith's horse must have been fully six lengths ahead of his opponents as he came to the first obstacle in the straight, and Lutteur III. was not even third. Wavelet then cracked, and just as Coverteoat was being regarded as an easy winner he compounded in a very few strides. From going smoothly he was in so much trouble that Avila had to draw his whip. Trianon III. then drew by him on his left, and, to increase the excitement, Lutteur III. began to get his second wind and take a fresh hold. The one mistake that the grey made was at the last fence, which he took sideways, just as his owner said he would if he was in front, but Hawkins quickly had him righted, and he fuished his race a fresher horse than Lutteur III., which had his tongue hanging out from distress. Coverteoat's sudden collapse cannot be accounted for, unless it was that he was just short of a couple of gallops. He may stay the distance of the 'National' course all right without being able to turn the tables upon the two French horses, which meet him at Liverpool on so much better terms."

NOTES OF THE TURF IN OTHER LANDS.

Mr. Parkinson has disposed of the useful four-ear-old filly, Little Icicle to go to South Africa. Hawkins, not Parfrement, will ride the French orse, Trianon III. in the Liverpool Grand Nationa teeplechase, for which another French horse, Lut Steeplechase, for wh teur III., is favorite.

teur III. is favorite.

An English owner very recently made M. H. de Mumm an offer of 3,000 guineas for Trianon III.

Joseph Shatwell, who has ridden no fewer than 317 winners on the continent, has returned to Belgium, but the Ashton-under-Lyne lightweight, who can easily go to scale at 100 pounds, will ride in Germany during the coming season. He is probably the strongest jockey at his weight in his profession.

Mr. Lionel Robinson's beautifully-bred mare, Perfect Peach, by Persimmon—Fascination, has been mated with Roi Herode. The same owner's Bill and Coo has a fine filly by Polymelus and goes to Neil Gow, and his Gallinule mare, Joie de Vivre has a filly by Bayardo and goes to Lemberg.

Mr. Kennedy Jones saw Castleton perform over hurdles for the first time at Gatwick March 5, but he could not have been very deeply impressed by the jumping exhibition of his 3,000 guineas purchase. The five-year-old was just as impetuous as he was at Windsor, and Dulier had to bring all his strength into play to check him. Even then the horse brushed more than one hurdle, and almost sat down altogether at the last obstacle, where Speedy King headed him, but only for a moment, as Castleton recovered his stride and won handily enough.
